

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

June 28, 2006

GEORGIA PEACH SALAD AND ROASTED CORNISH HEN A HIGHLIGHT IN CHEF
PAUL ALBRECHT'S CHARITY COOKING CLASS

--Proceeds to benefit, Atlanta's Table, a project of the Atlanta Community Food Bank—

WHO:

Renowned Chef Paul Albrecht of Paul's Restaurant

WHAT:

Chef Paul Albrecht, formerly of Pano's and Paul's, brings an exciting culinary experience to the Food Bank's Simple Abundance Cooking Class series. In the summer cooking class Picnic in July, he will demonstrate how to prepare picnic dishes, including chilled heirloom tomato bisque with goat cheese mousseline and basil oil, garlic passion fruit roasted Cornish hen with watercress and three color potato salad, and watermelon frappe limoncello and minted Georgia Peach salad. The evening will also feature wine tastings and the chance to win several door prizes.

The Atlanta Community Food Bank's Simple Abundance Cooking Classes provide the community with the unique opportunity to learn the secrets to exquisite dishes, have fun, and help feed Atlanta's hungry. One hundred percent of the class tuition benefits Atlanta Table, a project of the Atlanta Community Food Bank.

WHEN:

Tuesday, July 11, 2006, 7-9pm

WHERE:

The Cook's Warehouse, Brookhaven
4062 Peachtree Road, Atlanta, GA 30319

TO REGISTER:

For details or to register for any upcoming Simple Abundance Cooking Class, visit www.ACFB.org or call 404-892-3333 ext. 1444

MEDIA CONTACT:

Natasha Daniels
Communications Manager
678-553-6010
Natasha.daniels@acfb.org

###