Shante is thankful for healthy meals her daughters Armarria and Tamerria receive at a Food Bank partner afterschool program.

The mission of the Atlanta Community Food Bank is to fight hunger by engaging, educating and empowering our community.
Dear Friends,

This past year has been truly humbling for me. I’ve been blown away by the phenomenal support the Atlanta Community Food Bank has received from our partners, volunteers, donors and leaders in our community. It is my great honor to serve our mission, and I thank you so much for your support. I’m deeply grateful for the work we do together to end hunger and create a stronger community.

Our team is proud of the work we’ve accomplished. Together, we have made a difference in the lives of more than 755,000 people struggling with hunger by providing more than 57 million meals in our last fiscal year. We grew our distribution by 12.3% over the prior year. We expanded new food delivery methods, including bringing mobile pantries to schools to reach families and neighborhoods that may lack access to other food resources.

I’m inspired. Spurred on by the creativity, passion and entrepreneurial spirit of our staff, front-line agencies, board members and our caring community, we have forged a new strategic plan that imagines new ways the Food Bank can continue to expand and strengthen our impact for families, children and seniors in crisis (page 10). Our Bold Goal is that by 2025, all hungry people in our service area have access to the nutritious meals they need when they need them.

This is an ambitious goal. One that depends on fostering and creating partnerships, building on our strengths, adopting new technologies, driving new efficiencies, continuing our culture of servant leadership, and inviting more people to join us in our cause.

More than anything, I’m committed to helping the people we serve. People like Thelma and Kathy who have shared their story with us (page 4). People who have been humbled by circumstances they didn’t imagine and are striving to create a better tomorrow for themselves when they have the food they need for their families today. They are counting on us, and I’m so thankful I can count on you.

President and CEO
Atlanta Community Food Bank
Kathy is a veteran who honorably served our country. After leaving the Air Force, she struggled to find decent-paying work to support herself and her daughter. It left them battling hunger — a situation she never imagined happening to her family.

Kathy is thankful for the people who care – those who support the Food Bank and its partner food pantries. “The pantry has been a tremendous help to our family,” she said.

“IT’S HUMBLING. HUNGER KNOWS NO BOUNDARIES. IT DOESN’T CARE WHAT RACE YOU ARE, WHAT ECONOMIC BACKGROUND YOU COME FROM OR WHAT RELIGION YOU ARE. HUNGER DOESN’T CARE.”

– KATHY

When children have enough healthy food to eat, they’re much more likely to succeed in school. When parents don’t have to worry where they’ll find the next meal, families have a chance to survive – even thrive. Thelma and her husband both work, but sometimes they struggle to make ends meet. They’re thankful they can count on their neighborhood food pantry when they need help. Her sixth grader, David, (left) described how much the Food Bank has made a difference for their family.

“I THANK THE FOOD BANK BECAUSE IT HELPS MY FAMILY, LIKE MY LITTLE BROTHER, TO GROW UP AND IT HELPS MY MOM TO WORK AND HELPS US GO TO SCHOOL.”

– DAVID
She was eager to share her story, but she didn’t want to share her name. “I’m 83 years old. I never thought I would need to ask for help at this point in my life,” she said. When her husband unexpectedly became ill and died, she and her disabled son were left with financial burdens they never imagined. “We didn’t have enough for food and bills. We didn’t have a choice,” she said.

When she finally decided to go to her local food pantry, she and her son were able to get nutritious food supplied by the Food Bank.

“OH, IT’S WONDERFUL WHAT YOU GET... IT’S A BLESSING. THE FOOD BANK ALSO HELPED US GET FOOD STAMPS AND THEY MADE ME FEEL WELCOME. THEY WERE SO KIND.”

– ANONYMOUS
With a focus on nutrition and finding new sources of food, we are proud to report that produce has remained our highest percentage food category for distribution.

WE DISTRIBUTED 13.1 MILLION POUNDS OF FRESH PRODUCE LAST FISCAL YEAR

One way we get fresh produce is through our relationships with the state farmers market here in Atlanta. Mark Gambardella, Food Sourcing Specialist for the Food Bank, has spent the last three years creating and building relationships with the farmers, distributors and vendors who come to the market to sell their food.

One of our partners, Alexander Produce, works with retail stores and wholesalers to quickly move donated produce to the Food Bank. The produce comes straight from the farm to us, reducing food waste. We also work with Feeding America and the Georgia Food Bank Association to get a variety of produce from all over the country.

Our Mobile Food Pantries are key to getting fresh food to those in need. We are distributing 4,000 to 6,000 pounds of produce each time we host one of twelve weekly pantries located in areas where need is high.

Cooking to me and my family means coming together. We share dreams and life lessons to use in the future.
Freezer and Cooler Expansion

Each year, the Food Bank has provided greater access to healthy and high protein foods than the year before.

Last year, we took a giant leap and completed a major freezer and refrigeration project which empowered us to source and store more fresh food. The new cold storage provides an additional 192 pallet freezer spaces for frozen foods and 156 refrigerated spaces for fresh produce, almost doubling our fresh food handling capacity. Separate temperature zones allow us to properly store different types of produce for longer shelf-life.

A Welcoming Place to Learn

Increased access to healthy food is just part of the solution. When it’s a struggle to put food on the table, it can be intimidating to prepare a recipe or vegetable you’ve never tried before.

Our beautiful Learning Kitchen was designed to be a welcoming, safe place for our clients to try healthy new recipes and gain the confidence to use fresh produce and other food they receive through the Food Bank.

“COOKING TO ME AND MY FAMILY MEANS COMING TOGETHER.”

– Student

The transformation from what was a dormant industrial kitchen to a warm and welcoming teaching space was made possible by our longtime partner, The Home Depot, and kitchen designer Ann Klubertanz from the Midtown Home Depot. Special thanks also go to the Waterfall Foundation, The Coca-Cola Foundation and the Wilbur and Hilda Glenn Family Foundation.
This year, we embarked upon a new strategic plan with a bold goal.

BY 2025, ALL HUNGRY PEOPLE IN OUR SERVICE AREA HAVE ACCESS TO THE NUTRITIOUS MEALS THEY NEED WHEN THEY NEED THEM.

Our families, communities and region are paying too high a price for hunger. More than 900,000 people in the Food Bank’s 29 county service area struggle to provide food for themselves and their families. Working families make up the majority of this group and families with children account for more than 60% of the need.

We believe that this unparalleled level of need demands an unparalleled response.

It will take determination and lots of hard work to tackle these priorities. We’ll need to optimize food sourcing, influence hunger policies and expand our outreach efforts. We’ll try new things, measure our impact and try again. We’ll take risks along the way. It will take more food, people and big ideas than ever before, but we are up for the challenge. Together with our communities, we can end hunger and grow stronger.

WE WILL RELENTLESSLY PURSUE THREE STRATEGIC PRIORITIES TO MEET THIS BOLD GOAL:

1. Dramatically Grow Access to Nutritious Food
It will take determination and lots of hard work to meet our bold goal. It will take more food, people and big ideas than ever before. We invite you to join us!

2 Increase the Impact of Nutrition Programs and Hunger Policies

3 Invest in Reducing Need and Stabilizing Lives

We’re able to offer more nutritious items to the neighbors we serve because of our partnership with the Food Bank.” —Ernesta Ingram, director of longtime Food Bank partner agency Southwest Ecumenical Emergency Assistance Center
“We can’t expect people to live responsible lives if they don’t have enough to eat.” —Anonymous Donor
We distributed a total of 69.3 million pounds of food and grocery products in Fiscal Year 2015-16 from 61.7 million last year - enough for nearly 58 million meals. This is a 12.3% increase over the prior year. The past six years combined have seen more than a 100% increase in growth.

The Impact of Your Dollar

With your support, the Atlanta Community Food Bank served more than 600 nonprofit hunger-relief programs in 29 greater Atlanta and north Georgia communities. Additionally, we work with seven other food banks in Georgia through the Georgia Food Bank Association and Feeding America. (Nine counties in northwest Georgia receive food from both our Food Bank and the Chattanooga Area Food Bank.) All territory served by our Food Bank is highlighted in orange. An additional five counties are served by the Georgia Mountain Food Bank, indicated by a black outline.
