

Atlanta Community Food Bank Announces New 2026 Board Members

Newly appointed leaders will help guide efforts to create a more consistent and equitable food ecosystem in Georgia

ATLANTA, GA (August 5, 2026) -- The Atlanta Community Food Bank, the central hub in the fight against hunger in metro Atlanta and north Georgia, has named the newest members to its Governing and Advisory Boards to support the organization in making access to food assistance more convenient, consistent, frequent, and equitable across its service area, where over 900,000 people are projected to be food insecure. These recent appointments were effective as of July 1, 2026, for the Georgia nonprofit organization.

"We are honored to welcome our new Board members, who bring their professional expertise and dedication to our community, to the Food Bank," said Kyle Waide, President & CEO of the Atlanta Community Food Bank. "We are incredibly grateful to this group of leaders for their commitment to service and for joining us in our mission to fight hunger, making vital resources more accessible for our neighbors in need. We look forward to their guidance and collaboration as we work to amplify the impact of the Food Bank as a critical part of the food ecosystem."

The Food Bank added four new Governing Board members for Fiscal Year 2027. New members, who will serve three-year terms on the Board, are:

- Danielle Fallin: Dean, Rollins School of Public Health, Emory University
- Marshall Guest: Chief Strategy Officer, Metro Atlanta Chamber
- Noel Baber: VP & CFO, Kaiser Permanente Georgia
- Vonetta Daniels: Founder & Principal, VYD and Associates

About Atlanta Community Food Bank

The Atlanta Community Food Bank works to end hunger with the food, people, and big ideas needed to ensure our neighbors have the nourishment to lead healthy and productive lives. Far too many people in our own community experience hunger every day. Through more than 700 community-based, nonprofit partners in 29 counties, we help thousands of families, children, and seniors get healthy food every year. Our goal is that all hungry people across metro Atlanta and north Georgia will have access to the nutritious meals they need when they need them. It takes the power of our whole community to make that possible. In 2023, the Atlanta Community Food Bank distributed its one billionth meal. Join us at ACFB.org.
