

What is a Food Pantry?

A food pantry is a nonprofit where food insecure families can go to receive food.

Supplied with food from a food bank, food pantries feed hundreds of people per week!

Because every community is different, there are many different types of food pantries. Food pantries can be found in churches, schools, community centers and more.